

A Strategy for Developing the Facilities Information Technologies Plan

Discuss strategic planning to support the business mission. Explore the need for facility managers to translate a strategy into an Action Plan, providing a logical encompassing framework for decision making, to complete the Real Property Puzzle (including Strategic Plans, Action Plans, Business Processes, and Metrics), and provide the information technology required to support the mission of the Agency or corporation.